UNFROCKING OF REV. MR. BROWN.

Attracting Much Attention in Wilmington, Where He Formerly Preached.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 27.—Decided local interest has been felt in the stories printed in Northerm Papers about the unfrocking of Rev. Frank C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rowayton, Coon, as the minister has not long been away from Wilmington. The dispatches state that the divine was turned out of the pastorate on account of being too friendly with a young woman member of his congregation, a number of his effects, and that some of them were postmarked Wilmington. Hence this has accentuated local interest.

But the local coloring has gone even terest.

But the local coloring has gone even further, as last night Rev. Fred D. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and whose pulpit Rev. Mr. Brown filled while he was away for bly health preceded a search of the Wounds. The patient is doing well. BRAY OVERCOME WITH GAS WHILE ASLEEP IN BOAT his health, preached a sermon on the incident, and is now investigating the affair. Rev. Mr. Hale read the account of the affair from the New York Journal to his congregation, and then displayed the Journal's pletures in the case. He asked his congregation to withhold judgment until both sides had been heard, and stated that he had written for full particulars in the matter. He then took occasion to severely score "yellow journalism."

TAKE CARDUI It Will Help You

It is a pleasant, medicinal tonic, which is especially useful in the diseases peculiar to women, because of its direct, specific action, on the female organs and functions.

Cardui's success is proof of its merit, of its value to all sick women. In the 50 years it has been in use, we have yet to hear of the first case of female trouble that it has not benefited.

Try it for your trouble. Do it today. Get a bottle at the nearest drug store and take it according to directions on the wrapper.

Cardui cannot do you any harm and, on the other hand, is almost sure to do you great good.
